Telorio.

.039 Help and Situation Wants yesterday, 580

peared in any more than apother New

THE WORLD Is in a POSITION to HELP you whether YOU WANT a POSITION or HELP.

PRICE ONE CENT.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, TUESDAY, JUNE 13, 1893.

Saturday and Sunday === World's House and Home Days.

EIGHT PAGES.

FIRE AND DEATH.

Awful Disaster in a Montgomery Street Building This Morning.

THREE DEAD; THREE WILL DIE

Over 200 Men, Women and Children Were at Work in Sweat Shops.

MANY WERE BADLY INJURED.

Two Men and One Woman Leaped and Were Mangled and Killed.

At least three people were instantly killed and three fatally injured in a fire that broke out at 8.20 this morning in by a stable and five "sweating" shops.

damaged to the extent of $10,000 by the fire, which is variously supposed to have originated from a cigarette butt or a gasoline stove explosion. It is said that fully 200 people were employed in the building when the fire

The list of the dead and injured fol-

THE DEAD.

first floor; identified by his cousin, Joe Leman, 50 Essex. CELIA DAVIS, twenty-two years old, of 23 Suffolk street; worked on top floor; her clothing was almost all burned off; body frightfully burned about breast and limbs; face recognizable; skull frac-tured, left knee and left ankie broken; jumped from top floor; identified by her sister.

JOSEPH MENDELSSOHN, twenty-six JOSEPH MENDELSSOHN, twenty-six crushed in by jumping from fire-escape on first floor; identified by David Cassel, of 13 Pitt street.

THE INJURED.

GEORGE VREEHOUSE, thirty-six years old, tailor, of $2 Essex street, jumped from top floor, two stories, to an extension at 8 Montgomery street, struck fire-escape and broke small bones in one of his feet; sent home.

SAMUEL GROCOPP, aged fifty-one years, of 22 Clinton street, Russian, married, porter at 10 Montgomery street; jumped from first story; sustained contusion of forehead; taken to Gouverneur Hospital.

AUGUSTA AUGUSTONSKY, aged eighteen, Russian, of 54 Suffolk street; jumped from the first story to the ground; left leg broken; taken to Gouverneur Hospital; seriously burned and may die.

RESCUED BY MARK ALTERS.

ALICE NATHINSON, aged thirteen, schoolgiri, of 8 Pitt street, who was in the building visiting her father. Morris, on the fourth floor; badly burned, and will die; at Gouverneur Hospital.

MORRIS NATHINSON, aged thirty-five, German tailor, of 8 Pitt street; fearfully burned; will die; at Gouverneur Hospital.

MORRIS SIEGEL, Russian, aged forty-five, of 152 Division street, pedier; was in building seiling goods; contusion of legs caused by jumping from fire-escape; at Gouverneur Hospital; will recover.

HYMAN MEYERS, aged forty-two, married, of 55 Eidridge street; badly cut about ead; he insisted on going home, and left Gouverneur Hospital as soon as his wounds were dressed.

NO BODIES IN THE RUINS.

NO BODIES IN THE RUINS. The fire had been extingulated by 11 was so full of people that it could not o'clock, and the firemen made a thor-ough search of the building at the conclusion of which Chief Bonner and Po-lice Capt. Stephenson announced that no bodies remained in the ruins. through the opening in the balcony and feil into the horse run of the stable which leads down into the basement

SWEATERS FILLED THE BUILDING. fall.

The ground floor and basement of the One was the girl Augusta Augustonsky. building were used as a stable by Zip- She sprang from the second story pert, a soda-water man.

In the five floors above the stable were "sweater" shops. H. Schlevick's shop

The fire had spread so rapidly and burned so fiercely that the firemen could fourth, M. Silverstein: on the fifth, J. victims.

Ing/71

on the top, Morris THE DEAD.

AKIVS BOOX, twenty-eight years old, married, of $2 Eidridge street, skull crushed in; jumpep from fire escape on first floor; identified by his cousin, Joe Leman, $0 Essex.

Nathinson.

Ratsman's shop had been closed for two months, work only being resumed out of the windows at the second and third floors, completely enveloping those were resucued when the fire broke out, but two had to be left behind.

ATE WHILE THE FIRE BURNED.

When the fire was out these two horses were found unharmed, quietly eating oats, as if nothing had happened.

A little mongrel dog was with them and vociferously opposed the firemen's entrance to the cellar.

SWEATERS FILLED THE BUILDING.

Son street station, who was one of the first on the scene, says that when he iron shutters, all of which were closed and fastened so that they could hardly be opened.

Persons who were on the street say that there were several men and women who were seen at the windows, and fell and vociferously opposed the firemen's caught four of them and broke their several men and women who were seen at the windows, and fell and its first on the scene, says that when he iron shutters, all of which were closed and fastened so that they could hardly be opened.

Persons who were on the street say that there were several men and women who were seen at the windows, and fell and the proposed that they could hardly be opened.

Lawyer Brooke Presents Affidavits and Wants a New Trial.

THE FIRE.

Victims.

An eye witness said that the flames at first burned out of the two top stories, and suddenly, without any warning, leaped out of the windows at the second and third floors, completely enveloping those who were huddled on the fire-ecapes at these stories.

This caused them to jump, and they landed in the street, some escaping with slight bruines and others receiving fatal injuries.

Some of those who fell through the opining in the balcony struck the sharp spikes of an iron ralling in front of the horse run of the stable.

The bodies of the man and woman were carried over to the corner, where they were covered up with a blanket. The other man was still alive when picked up, but he died the human and woman were covered up with a blanket. The other man was still alive when picked up, but he died the human and woman were covered up with a blanket. The bodies of the was identified as a Mendelssohn.

He told the bartender before he died that he worked on a machine, and was married, but he died before he could tell his name. Later he was identified as Mendelssohn.

The injured were carried into a drug store on the corner until the ambulance took them way.

The police had hard work to keep back it in the worked on a machine, and was married, but he died before he could tell his name. Later he was identified as Mendelssohn.

The injured were carried into a drug store on the corner until the ambulance took them way.

The police had hard work to keep back it is the rowds, among whom were men and mad women who had relatives working in the many and working in the other police way to the provisions of the firm of the prov And the party and the corner of the corner o tion brought by the wife in 1852, on the ground of non-payment of alimony.

The papers were served, it was learned to-day made the following appoint to-day during the funeral services of the Actor Edwin Booth at the "Little Church Around the Corner." in West Twenty-ninth street, on June 9.

The papers show that Miss Booth, who is a nicce of the late Edwin Booth, who is a nicce of the late Edwin Booth, who is a nicce of the late Edwin Booth, was married to Douglas June 20, 1888, by a Justice of the Peace in Jersey City. A son, Edwin Booth Douglas, survives as a nesult of the marriage. The couple never lived happly, so the gan a suit for divorce from his wife. The Douglas brought a counter suit and asked for $40 a week alimony. Judge Freedman ordered $25 a weekallony. Judge Freedman ordered $25 a weekallony. The wife now alleges that she has received but a small portion of the money due her. The husband has paid no attention to the papers served on him on June 9, and Mrs. Douglas's money due her. The husband has paid no attention to the papers served on him on June 9, and Mrs. Douglas's mitment papers upon which to arrest the actor when he returns from Boston, where he is now believed to be.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The President to-day made the following appoint. This first dent did not be assistant Autorney-General, vice be Assistant Autorney-

RACING AT ASCOT HEATH. Jardine's Kinneskillen and 3ad Eneign Win Stake Events,

LONDON, June 13.—This was the first when I made my memorandum. It was day of the Ascot Heath race weeting. on the dining-room side. To a certain character to the New York and Brook- The racing will continue for 'our days. extent I made a statement as lyn police, who is in the Richmond Coun- The principal on to-day's programme position of the assassin after having ty Jail, having been indicted for bur- was the race for the Ascot Stakes (hanseen that spot on the jamb, but I now sparsing the Stapleton Post-Office and dicap). 20 sovereigns each, with 1,000 attempting to kill Policeman Joseph King, is in a critical condition.

He is suffering from pneumenta, and it is not believed that he will live for five-year-old brown horse Enniskillen, his trial, which has been set down for A. Taylor's six-year-old roan mare Mrs. The race was won by Sir R. Jardine's five-year-old brown horse Enniskillen.

The race was won by Sir R. Jardine's allant reached around the door casing sallant reached around the door casing four-year-old chestnut colt Lauriscope

Mrs. Gueterbock, C. Otto Basse and the girl It was announced this morning that the different directions. In every instance Rabine, in the Gueterbock suicide case, to condition of Hugh McLaughin, the Democratic leader in Kings County, was very much improved, and that his family are conident that the patient will be around again in a new days. Mr. McLaughlin's liness was nothing more than a severe attack of indiof the lounge. I don't think the assail

Policeman William H. Taylor, of the Kings-briggs station, has a suit on trial in the Su-STAPLETON, S. I., June 13.—Word reached for the lack of blood on it, even though Police Readquarters to-day that Rosemary the blows came from left to right; I pury or an absolute divor e from his wife, Romei J. Taylor. They have five children, several of whom ies field to tay against their mother, who was resent in court. Mr. Taylor amnes Great also Fowler and one Durand as co-respondents.

Police lieadquarters to-day that Rosemary the blows came from left to right; I backson, the colored cook, of New York, who was struck on the head with a brick by Charles Jones was therebury the jaw been cut there would have been abay flow of blood, but the assailant would not have necessarily been covered would not have necessarily been covered.

Burglars Caucht in the Act. Michael Fagan, of 13 Monroe street, and years, tiving at Kingsbridge road and one James Kavanagh, of 57 Scammel street, were Market Police Court this morning, charged with having entered the liquor saloon at 285 itenty street yeaterday evening. John Haw-kins, a private watchman, caught them in the act. They were held for trial at General

Describing the blood-spots in the room the witness said: "I never mentioned the blood-spot on the jamb of the door because it had been taken away position of the assassin after having to deal the blows. I saw no spots on third.

Jardine's Red Ensign won the Prince of divisior of the panels, but I cannot tell Now the Examination is Continued Wales Stakes, Lord Roseberry's Treasure Exactly how high above the floor-per-ber June 23.

Until June 23.

Jardine's Red Ensign won the floor-per-wales Stakes, Lord Roseberry's Treasure exactly how high above the floor-per-haps five or six feet. Taking all the things in connection with this matter, I should say the blood-spots came from ant swung the instrument in the direcwould not have necessarily been covered with blood from the spurts. The swinging of the hatchet would have been likely to cause spattering of blood of the assallant and on the victim.

MRS. BORDEN'S POSITION. Witness here arranged the cast of